OLD - TIMER OF PEACE RIVER, YUKON KILLED

Ex-Editor to Edmonton Bulletin
DUMBLEHILL, Alta., Oct. 28.—James Rice, 68, who spent his early days in the far north during the gold rush era, and one of the old timers who blazed the trail of '89, was instantly killed here Saturday evening when struck by the engine of the Edmonton-Calgary C. N. R. passenger train at Midland crossing.

The late Mr. Rice, who was born in Ireland, came to Canada 41 years ago. He worked for a short time at Remfrew, Ontario, when the line of the north ended there. He crossed Canada to Vancouver, and then joined a party to Seattle and proceeded into the north country where he spent many years in the gold fields of the Yukon and Klondike.

He was an old-timer of Drumheller, and for the past 14 years had worked at the Midland mill. His untimely death came while walking home from work Saturday night.

He was hit by a short train from the south when he was crossing the tracks at the Midland crossing.

The deceased, who was slightly deaf, apparently became carried and stepped into the tracks instead of away from them.

His body was viewed by Coroner Dr. G. H. Whitmore and a jury Saturday night with having being adjourned until Wednesday. As far as it is known the deceased was a single, had no relatives in this country.

Detroit Red Wings Have Age and Youth

DETROIT, Oct. 28.—(CP)—On the theory that two heads are better than one—especially if one is in the thick of the battle—Detroit Red Wings are out this year to regain a lot of lost prestige in the National Hockey League.

Surrounded by a mixture of veteran and youth, Jack Adams will sit on the bench and Eddie Goodenow will be on the defence as playing coach.

Out there with Eddie will be a few of the old guard including Matt Busby, Syd Howe and Gord Dillan. But in the mean, it's the big chance for youngsters.

EXPECT RESULTS

Kids like Jimmy Orlando, Alvin Mallett, Gus Giesebrecht, Chris Brown and Sid Abel entered the Detroit scene last night and the club's rebuilding program began in earnest. They didn't set the league alight as the Wings finished fifth but they showed plenty of promise and the Detroit house figure they shine this season.

Several amateurs are trying out with Wings and their Indianapolis farm club at daily drills and four have been signed to professional contracts.

Because of the influx of youth, one of the Wings is a question mark—just as is their starting lineup for the opening league game, Nov. 3 against New York Islanders. Only one thing is certain—a new goalkeeper will be between the posts.

MOWERS LIKELY GOALS

Tom Thomson, the old goalie, has left to become coach of Buffalo Bisons of the American League. His replacement will be Jimmy Mowat, a sensation in senior amateur hockey with the Regina Pats. Out, two seasons ago. Mowat played for Detroit's Omaha farm club in the American Hockey League last season.

Another wonder is Jimmy Frank, the Regina boy who last winter played with Indianapolis. He was probably with the Detroit team as a prospect. Mowat, a sensation in senior amateur hockey with the Regina Pats, Out, two seasons ago. Mowat played for Detroit's Omaha farm club in the American Hockey League last season.

Adams says his Wings and his farm-club players are the "best-looking crowd of players I have ever seen assembled."

DETROIT TO DROP

Game Franchise

DETROIT, Oct. 28.—(CP)—A franchise in the National Basketball League will be inactive this season because of lack of suitable facilities.

Six franchises now remain active in the league, including Chicago, Oakland, San Diego, Hammond and two in Alaska.

First Wayne has dropped the basketball franchise, but will not operate it until another club enters to complete an eight-team league.

DETROIT, Oct. 28.—(CP)—Ernie Savinainen's friends can't figure out how he gets by without a secretary. Not only is Savinainen the best ball-carrier, kicker, blocker and passer in the Detroit Lions' backfield, but he plays basketball, basketball and hockey.

His outside interests include a partnership in a laundry, publishing a weekly advertising pamphlet and handling a flower agency.

TO PLAY AMATEUR

QUEBEC, Oct. 28.—(CP)—The Quebec Amateur Hockey association Sunday decided to recommend that Amal Jalel, former franchise star with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League, be reinstated as an amateur. Jalel, who has been out of professional hockey since the season before last, hopes to play with Verdun Red Devils in the Quebec Senior Hockey League.

Stukus Kicks Goal Just Before Whistle

TORONTO, Oct. 28.—(CP)—"A team that won't be beaten can't be beaten..." The words were Lay Hayman's, the team was his and the old adage came true again Saturday as 20 gallant Toronto Argonauts roared back from a crushing defeat to beat the champion Ottawa Rough Riders 11-9.

The other big game saw Hamilton Tigers were their first victory of the season, a 13-7 win over Montreal's numbers again.

Huskies Defeat Regina 13-12

REGINA, Oct. 28.—(CP)—University of Saskatchewan Huskies defeated Regina junior team 13-12 here Saturday in an exhibition football game.

Regina's first try for Dales was a touchdown in the first quarter.

Huskies showed a shade too much power for Dales who showed a touch of youth.

Regina's young players, guided again by Paul Dales who coached them in the Canadian junior championship two seasons ago, will enter winter playoffs with Alberta and Manitoba representatives.

His mother, Mrs. Christina Leakin, lives in South Saskatchewan.

Mustangs Impressive

University of Western Ontario Mustangs, looking classy and more powerful than last year when they were champions of the Interprovincial Union, overhauled local Military College, Kingston, 20-0 in an exhibition game.

Nearly 1,000 fans watched the thriller at Toronto Varsity Stadium, where Bobby Coulter led a superb backfield that fought on until Ontario's 100th anniversary.

Mustangs' victory was a surprise. The Mustangs had been considered the underdog in the game.

CITY SAILOR IS LOST AS SHIP SINKS

Leading Signaller Cedric
de Herries Smith Popular Here

The Bonnie Doon district Monday was mourning the death of leading signaller Cedric de Herries Smith, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. de Herries Smith, 5215 87th street, who was lost when the Canadian destroyer Margate was sunk in a collision with a large merchant ship October 22.

He joined the Royal Canadian Navy at Esquimaut at the age of 16 and had been with the senior service ever since.

His parents received a card from him on Saturday in which he stated he was in England and had just written and passed his pilot officer's examination.

His younger brother, Ronald Fraser Smith, 16, now is with the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve at Esquimaut.

Besides his parents he leaves four brothers, Ronald, Desmond, Achilles and Gerald and two sisters, Mrs. A. Shearing and Mrs. E. Stapleton.

Leading Signaller Smith was formerly with H.M.C.S. Fraser, the ill-fated destroyer which sank in a collision earlier in the year.

As member of the senior service, "Ced" had been many parts of the world and accounts of his trips from his parents have appeared from time to time in The Bulletin.

TOOK OVER FRENCH SPIRIT
He was one of the senior navy-men who were assigned to escort French warships in the name of His Majesty when France capitulated.

His father, "Doc" Smith, is a well-known newspaperman in Vancouver, Canada. An Australian, he came to Canada as a youth and saw service in the First Great War. He is now a member of the Veterans Volunteer Reserve.

"Doc" Smith was a former member of The Bulletin's editorial staff.

Surgeon Lieutenant
Is Rescued Twice

Surgeon Lieutenant Timothy Blair McLean, 28, son of J. Nelson McLean, 1021 8th avenue, was rescued when the destroyer Margate, of the Royal Canadian navy, was sunk in a collision with a converted merchant ship, which was also a survivor of the H.M.C.S. Fraser which was sunk in a similar accident. At that time he was injured but had recovered sufficiently to duty.

A graduate of the University of Alberta, he joined the navy as surgeon lieutenant at the outbreak of the war. He was previously senior instructor at the Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton. He had served in the navy as a boy before starting his medical studies.

THE INQUIRING
Reporter

THE QUESTION
The confusion and uncertainty about the world war situation prompted the Inquiring Reporter to get opinions on the likely moves of the nations involved in this war of the nations.

THE ANSWERS
CARL E. BERG, president, Trades and Labor Council, one great fact stands out—perhaps the most important fact is that Britain and the United States are working together to save themselves and civilization and a complete and total trust never matched. In this singular case there is the hope of free men.

GORDON HULBURD, salesman:
There is little point in the endgame speculation as to what this or that nation intend to do. We shall learn in due course the answers to all the questions that now perplex us, but nothing will change the answer that will be Britain's and the Empire's and Canada's and his gang. It will be total destruction and oblivion.

DICKY BARCLAY, returned soldier:
Why worry about it? Let's always be an English Empire and free men.

CITIZEN PROUD
GREECE BEHIND
GREAT BRITAIN

Pride, mingled with satisfaction that Greece has signed herself to the side of Great Britain, was a leading member of the Anglo-Hellenic Society here.

"Nobody admires a man who is right when he is right," he explained to us that Greece is fighting back against the Italian invader, and she should be small and has no air force but she is putting up a good fight but she is not alone.

Mr. Johnson is a reservist in the Greek army but does not expect to be recalled in the present crisis because his age will not likely be recalled.

During the Balkan War in 1912-13, Mr. Johnson sold his business and returned to Greece to fight against the Turks.

Mr. Mitchell is well-known in Alberta and business circles and is a resident of east Edmonton. He was elected to the city council in 1919 and is the city champion for several years and is a director on the Southern Alberta Transport Ltd. and of the Sterling Cattle Co.

Members of the Edmonton Progressive association Friday nominated Fred J. Mitchell, bringing the total to 10 running for the seven aldermanic seats.
